

Richmond Animal Protection Society

Planned Giving and the Richmond Animal Protection Society

April 15, 2009

INCLUDING RAPS IN YOUR WILL

Thank you for considering including the Richmond Animal Protection Society in your will. When drawing up your will, please consult a legal professional to ensure it reflects your wishes. Below is some sample language to include RAPS in your will depending on your intentions for the bequest.

I give the Richmond Animal Protection Society (RAPS) [Registered Charity #890733777 RR0001], currently located at 12071 No. 5 Road in Richmond, BC the sum of [monetary value].

I give the Richmond Animal Protection Society (RAPS)[Registered Charity #890733777 RR0001], currently located at 12071 No. 5 Road in Richmond, BC, [percent] of my estate.

Thank you for considering including the Richmond Animal Protection Society in your will.

ENSURING THE FUTURE CARE OF YOUR SURVIVING PETS

When you start planning for the future care of your pets, please consider including the Richmond Animal Protection Society (RAPS) as part of your will. As a no-kill animal organization, we will commit to find a home for your animal when you specify RAPS as the caretaker and bequeath $5,000 or greater for each pet you leave in our care.

Please consult with a lawyer or legal professional to ensure your will specifies the Richmond Animal Protection Society (Registered Charity #890733777 RR0001) as the beneficiary of funds designated to care and re-home of your pet(s). Please contact RAPS if you choose to include our organization as the chosen caretaker of our animal should you pass away. Thank you.

“From a street life to a safe life”

12071 No. 5 Road
Richmond, BC V7A 4E9
(604) 275-2036 / www.rapsociety.com
Registered Canadian Charity #890733777 RR0001